Announcements:

- Today we are celebrating the twenty years of our Society in Kenya, the ten years of the school and of the ordination of Father James. All of you are welcome for the solemn high Mass at 11am and the following festivities.
- Today no catechism before the High mass and no confessions during the High mass. However, two priests will confess between 10 and 11am.
- Holy Cross Catholic International school will open for a new academic year tomorrow. Holy Cross is a strong catholic school for strong Catholic currently from Baby Class to Year 10. Please inquire today about the school!
- We already want to thank so much all those who have worked hard and contributed for the preparation of today's event.
