Announcements:

- Today, first Sunday of the month, Adoration as usual and meeting of the parish groups.

- Fr James will go for his annual retreat from today and will come back next Monday. Please pray for him.
- No mass this Thursday at 8:15am, but the school mass will be said with sermon and songs at 6:50am.
- Fr Peter will travel next week to France with Daniel Kizito Kyule who is going to learn French during one year before to join seminary in next October. Please pray for him. You are welcome to contribute to the expenses of his travel.
- Buy the way, we wish to start a fund for supporting vocations. Our parish is blessed with many vocations, and we thank God for that. However it is good for the parishioners to know that when we send a youth to the seminary or for religious life, we should pay school fees for each. The cost is of one million Kes per year for each not including plane tickets. We wanted our faithful to be aware of that and understand why we desire to establish a fund for vocations.
